Hi Hiring Team,

I'm Ivan du Plessis — a WordPress and SEO professional with 10+ years of experience building high-converting websites and optimizing them for search engines to generate qualified leads for service-based businesses.

I handle WordPress site builds, Elementor Pro configuration, on-page SEO, content structuring, and technical troubleshooting with speed, accuracy, and attention to detail — ensuring websites rank, convert, and perform reliably. I also create workflows, documentation, and lead capture systems that improve efficiency and business growth.
